NEVADA STATE HEALTH DIVISION

NEWS RELEASE

MARLA MCDADE WILLIAMS NAMED CHIEF, BUREAU OF LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATION

Carson City – Nevada State Health Division (NSHD) Administrator Richard Whitley announced today the appointment of Marla McDade Williams as Chief of the Bureau of Licensure and Certification (BLC). Williams previously served as the program manager for the Women’s Health Connection. Prior to that position, she served as the program manager for NSHD’s Hepatitis Program. As Chief, Williams will oversee BLC’s two sections: Health Facilities and Medical Laboratories.

“Marla’s background within the Health Division, coupled with her extensive experience with the Legislative Counsel Bureau is an asset to the Bureau of Licensure and Certification,” Whitley said.

Before joining the Health Division, Williams was a Senior Research Analyst with the Legislative Counsel Bureau for nine years. During her tenure with the Legislative Counsel Bureau, Williams was the lead staff person for the Assembly Committee on Health and Human Services, the Legislative Committee on Health Care, and she participated on numerous legislative subcommittees.

Williams holds a baccalaureate degree in Political Science from Washington State University in Pullman, Washington, and a Master’s Degree in Public Administration from the University of Nevada, Reno.
