NEVADA STATE HEALTH DIVISION NEWS RELEASE

HONOReform Expands Mission in Nevada

Three Nevadans join the HONOReform Foundation's Board of Directors

Carson City – The Nevada State Health Division's One and Only Campaign received notification that three Nevadans will join the Board of Directors for the HONOReform Foundation. The new members are Henry Chanin, Karen Morrow and Dr. Frank Nemec.

Evelyn McKnight, president of Hepatitis Outbreak's National Organization for Reform Foundation said, "We are pleased and privileged to welcome these individuals to our Board of Directors. Their dedication and expertise will help expand our mission in Nevada."

McKnight serves as patient spokesperson for the Safe Injection Practices Coalition, which was developed by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and HONOReform. The One and Only Campaign, led by this coalition, is active in Nevada.

Joseph Theile, Development and Outreach Coordinator of the Nevada Campaign said, "We look forward to working closely with HONOReform's newest Board Members. All three have been active here in Nevada. Karen Morrow is also a member of the Nevada Coalition for Safe Injection Practices and has been very active and generous in making herself available to the Nevada Campaign. Ms. Morrow recently recorded a Public Service Announcement (PSA) for the Campaign that is currently airing on radio stations across Nevada. The PSA is the featured piece on our Nevada One and Only YouTube Channel."
