

SB 503: Breakfast After the Bell

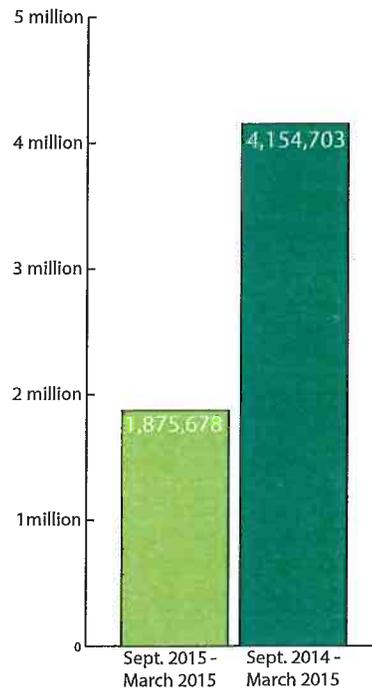

April 2016 Progress Report

Senate Bill 503, also known as the Breakfast After the Bell Bill, was signed into law by Governor Brian Sandoval on June 12, 2015. The bill required all Nevada schools with 70 percent or greater free/reduced lunch eligibility implement an option for students to have access to breakfast after the start of the school day. The bill also set aside $2 million in grant money to assist in implementation over the next two years. The following data shows participation success, progress in grant applications, awards and implementation in the 2015-2016 school year as of March 1, 2016.

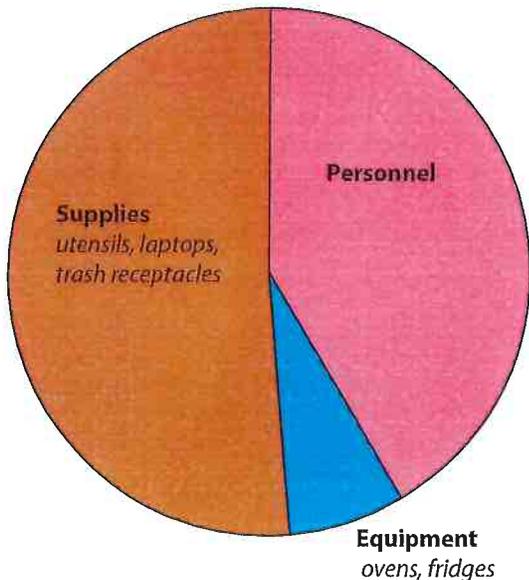

SUCCESS TO DATE

- + 109 schools (of 111) in all eight eligible districts have received $970,876 in grant awards, increasing access to breakfast for more than 84,000 students statewide.
- + 2,279,025 more breakfasts served compared to the same time last year, as of March 2016.
- + Double breakfast participation (from 20% to 43%) among qualifying schools over the same time last year.
- + additional $4.5 million in Federal reimbursements into the State of Nevada, as of March 2016.
- + Increased access to breakfast in high-need schools is important because extensive research has shown that students who eat breakfast achieve academically, have fewer behavioral issues and fewer visits to the school nurse.
