¹For the purposes of risk exposure to nCoV, HCP refers to all people, paid and unpaid, working in healthcare settings whose activities potentially place them at risk for exposures to a patient with nCoV. Examples of such activities include:

- those that require direct contact with patients or their respiratory secretions.
- presence in the patient's room or immediate patient-care environment, such as in a triage or examination room, or other potentially contaminated areas.
- handling respiratory secretions, including soiled medical supplies and medical waste, or potentially contaminated equipment or environmental surfaces.

²Refer to Nevada Department of Health and Human Services of Exposure Risk Categories for 2019 Novel Coronavirus (2019-nCoV).

³This refers to entering the room or care area in any of the following situations: while the patient was present or within 1 hour of the patient leaving the room or care. The time period may be shorter depending on the number of air changes per hour. More information: <https://www.cdc.gov/infectioncontrol/guidelines/environmental/appendix/air.html>.

⁴An AIIR should meet current standards, including:

- Providing at least six (existing facility) or 12 (new construction/renovation) air changes per hour.
- Directing exhaust of air to the outside.
- If an AIIR does not directly exhaust to the outside, the air may be returned to the air-handling system or adjacent spaces if all air is directed through HEPA filters.
