INFORMATION FOR A CONSTRUCTION AND LABOR CAMP PERMIT

Before operating a construction or labor camp, the operator must apply for a permit to operate, submit sufficient plans for review by the Health Division and pay the required fees. Within a reasonable period after receipt of an application for a permit to operate a labor camp, plans of the labor camp and the required fees, the Health Division shall review the application and plans submitted for accuracy and completeness. Upon receipt of an application that it determines to be complete, the Health Division shall conduct an inspection to determine whether the facility complies with NAC 444.550 to 444.566, inclusive.

REGULATIONS

State of Nevada	Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) Chapter 444.550 to 444.566	http://www.leg.state.nv.us/nac/nac-444.html

SANITATION FACILITIES FOR A LABOR CAMP - FEES

The Health Division shall charge and collect the following fees to permit labor camps as follows, except in areas where the laws and regulations governing the sanitation of labor camps are administered by local health authorities.
For an annual permit to operate a construction or labor camp	$166 plus $1.25 for each five workers above 30.
The Health Division shall charge and collect the following fees for reviewing plans for labor camps as follows, except in areas where the laws and regulations governing the sanitation of labor camps are administered by local health authorities:
For a plan for a new facility	$124 plus $1.25 for each 5 workers above 30 in the camp.
For a plan for remodeling a facility which has a permit	$83 plus $1.25 for each five workers above 30 workers in the camp.

Plan Review Requirements

Any person providing a construction or labor camp must notify the health authority at least 30 days before their intended use and must furnish the following information:

- (a) Names and addresses of owners or operators;
- (b) Location of facilities;
- (c) Size of labor camp and facilities;
- (d) Number of workers;
- (e) Water availability;
- (f) Sewage system and sanitation facilities;
- (g) Garbage facilities; and
- (h) Any other facility information which is applicable, including food, sanitary and laundry facilities.

Permit Requirements

The Health Division shall issue a permit to operate a labor camp if the labor camp is in compliance with NAC 444.550 to 444.566, inclusive. The Division may deny, suspend or revoke a permit to operate a labor camp if the applicant fails to:

- (a) Notify the health authority before construction and completion of the labor camp;
- (b) Allow inspection of the labor camp during or after its construction; or
- (c) Follow any of the requirements set forth in NRS 444.130 to 444.200, inclusive, and NAC 444.550 to 444.566, inclusive.
