Any actions taken by the subcommittee will be subject to final approval by the Rural RBHPB at subsequent Board meetings.

Note: Agenda items may be taken out of order, combined for consideration, and or removed from the agenda at the chairperson's discretion.

- 1.) Call to Order and Roll Call of Participating Board Members. Only two or more Board members need to be present. Fergus Laughridge, Chair
- 2.) Public Comment:
Public testimony under this agenda item may be presented by computer, phone, or written comment. Due to time considerations, each individual offering public comment will be limited to not more than three (3) minutes.
- 3.) Informational: Introduction to Purpose and End Goals of Subcommittee.
Fergus Laughridge, Chair, and Valerie Haskin, Rural Regional Behavioral Health Coordinator.

The Rural Regional Behavioral Health Policy Board Chair and its designated Regional Behavioral Health Coordinator will outline the purpose of the subcommittee, its end goals, and expectations for participation by Board Members, guests, and all attendees. Housekeeping items will also be addressed.

As this group is charged with developing the Bill Draft Request (BDR) concept for the Rural Regional Behavioral Health Policy Board's bill for the 82nd session of the Nevada Legislature, non-legislative fixes will be noted, but only changes that would require or best benefit from legislative fixes will be focused upon

Members of the Regional Behavioral Health Policy Board who are participating in this subcommittee, may designate and prioritize specific issues that should be included in the draft BDR concept moving forward. The contents of the BDR concept developed in this subcommittee will be used to build a draft BDR concept that will be approved by the Rural Regional Behavioral Health Policy Board during its August meeting, for submission by September 1, 2022.

4.) Informational: Introduction to Other State's Behavioral Health Workforce Development Pipeline Models - Nebraska and Illinois.

Dr. Sara Hunt, Assistant Dean of Behavioral Health Sciences; Director of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas Mental/Behavioral Health Training Coalition; Associate Professor, Psychiatry and Behavioral Health at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Dr. Hunt will briefly review the behavioral health workforce development pipelines modeled by Nebraska and Illinois, as well as describe any legislative actions taken by these two states to develop the pipeline.

5.) Informational: Introduction to Other Work Completed.

Megan Comlossy, Associate Director, Center for Public Health Excellence, School of Public Health, University of Nevada, Reno; and Andrea L. Gregg, Chief Executive Officer, High Sierra Area Health Education Community (AHEC).

Ms. Comlossy and Ms. Gregg will outline the work completed by their Health Workforce Development Pipeline Advisory Committee, including gaps in programming and services identified in the current K-12 through professional practice pipeline, including programs during primary, secondary, post-secondary, and graduate education.

6.) Discussion: Gaps and Legislative Fixes.

Fergus Laughridge, Chair; Members of the Rural Regional Behavioral Health Policy Board present; Valerie Haskin, Rural Regional Behavioral Health Coordinator; other attendees.

Based on the information provided in Agenda Items 4 and 5 and guided by the purpose of the Subcommittee outlined in Agenda Item 3, the Board Chair will lead the group in a discussion to identify the most urgent gaps in the current system, as well as legislative changes that may ameliorate these issues. Issues and gaps identified by the group will be recorded by the Rural Regional Behavioral Health Coordinator, and under the guidance of the Chair and members of the Board will be included as either possible concepts for inclusion in the Bill Draft Request (BDR) or may be assigned to a "parking lot" for consideration later.

7.) Action Item: Designate Initial Critical Gaps to Prioritize and Assign Action Items.

Fergus Laughridge, Chair; Members of the Rural Regional Behavioral Health Policy Board present; Valerie Haskin, Rural Regional Behavioral Health Coordinator.

With the assistance of the Rural Regional Behavioral Health Coordinator, the Board Chair will lead the Board Members present to:

Initial prioritization of gap areas.

Assign action items to Board Members, the Rural Regional Behavioral Health Coordinator, or any other willing guest or meeting participant.

8.) Action Item: Review and Approve Proposed Subcommittee Meeting Schedule and Topical Areas.
