ABOUT BBHWP

NEVADA DIVISION of PUBLIC
and BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

- The Bureau of Behavioral Health Wellness and Prevention (BBHWP) serves as both the Single State Agency for Substance Use and the Single State Mental Health Authority for the Division of Public and Behavioral Health.
- BBHWP is home to numerous substance use and community health programs that help provide key behavioral health services for Nevadans.
- Services include:
 - Mental Health Programs
 - Substance Use Prevention, Treatment, and Recovery Services (SUPTRS)
 - State Opioid Response
 - Office of Suicide Prevention
 - Problem Gambling Services
 - Substance Use Provider Certifications
- BBHWP partners with community providers through subgrants and contracts using state and federal funding, including block grant funding.

FY24 Priority Areas

NEVADA DIVISION of PUBLIC
and BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

SAMHSA approved the following priority areas within the Bureau's FY24 Mental Health Block Grant application. These priority areas were used for funding decision making.

1. Crisis Services
2. First Episode Psychosis (FEP)/Early Serious Mental Illness (ESMI)
3. Child & Adolescent Services
4. Behavioral Health Workforce Expansion
5. Treatment for Serious Mental Illness (SMI)/Serious Emotional Disturbance (SED)

Progress on the performance indicators related to these priority areas are reported to SAMHSA annually.

- Funding UNR and UNLV to provide services to people experiencing first episode and early onset psychosis.
- Funding the Division of Child and Family Services to provide in-home clinical services and a psychiatric clinic for youth and families.
- Funding Assertive Community Treatment (ACT) services and technical assistance for ACT providers.
- Funding a Positive Behavioral Interventions and Support (PBIS) program for juvenile justice involved youth.

Proposed FY25 Budget

NEVADA DIVISION of PUBLIC
and BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

- Nevada's FY24 Mental Health Block Grant allotment was a little over $11 million dollars.
 - The final FY25 allotment is pending legislative approval.
- Allotments have stayed stable over the fiscal years.
- The Bureau's MHBG FY25 budget will be flat funded, with an exception for cost-of-living increases, including employee raises.
- The Bureau anticipates having some unobligated money to fund new programs.
- The Bureau plans to release a Request for Application in 2025.
