Disqualifying Crimes

Below is a list of the crimes* for which a person, if convicted of any, would be prohibited from working or residing at a child care facility. It is important that facility directors/owners review all employees Consent and Release forms before signing. By signing this form, the director/owner acknowledges they are aware of the arrest. If an employee lists any of the prohibited crimes on their Consent and Release Form, they must provide a written disposition of the crime from the court, indicating that there was not a conviction before the person is allowed to work.
